- Minimum two (2) years of experience in by-law enforcement.
- Certification as a Municipal Law Enforcement Officer and Property Standards Officer is an asset or willingness to obtain.
- Sound knowledge of the Provincial Offences Act, including Part I and Part III procedures, to support enforcement activities, court file preparation, and related legal documentation.
- Knowledge of legislation related to municipal by-law enforcement.
- Demonstrated knowledge of municipal animal control by-laws, the Pounds Act, and other applicable Ontario legislation governing domesticated animals, with the ability to apply that knowledge in investigations, enforcement, documentation, and related court processes.
- Ability to remain current on new legislation and informed of all relevant matters, regulations, practices, procedures and developments.
- Proficient in computer applications including the Microsoft Office suite.
- Ability to work independently in a fast paced, time sensitive and political environment, while processing and managing a high volume of work.
- Must be physically fit and able to perform the essential duties of the position.
- Highly effective communication and customer service skills.
- Exceptional organizational skills with the ability to prepare, manage, and submit accurate documentation for court matters.
- Good judgement and calm demeanour in assessing potential by-law infractions.
- Ability to effectively de-escalate conflict situations.
- Demonstrated problem solving and decision-making skills.
- Must possess a valid Class “G” drivers license in good standing.
- Successful candidate will be required to submit a clear Criminal Record Check.
- Must be available to work evenings and weekends if required.

In addition to a competitive salary of $34.35 - $40.41 per hour (2026 rates) and a comprehensive benefit package, the Town of Renfrew offers exemplarily values, a strong community spirit, a rural quality of life, well maintained infrastructure, and an outdoor recreation paradise, all of which help to create a productive environment for personal growth and success.
