

Appendix 1
Town of Renfrew Official Plan
Hazards and Natural Features

**Please review in conjunction with Schedule A**

- |                                            |                                                                       |                                                                      |
|--------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Potential Slip Clays                       | Water Intake Protection Zone                                          | Wildland HazardExtremeHighPine - Needs Evaluation |
| Permanent Stream/River                     | Approximate location of flood plains (refer to detailed Town mapping) |                                                                      |
| Intermittent Stream/River                  | Valleyland/Unevaluated Wetland                                        |                                                                      |
| Active Waste Disposal Site                 | Significant Woodland                                                  |                                                                      |
| Area of Potential Leachate Impact          | Property Parcel                                                       |                                                                      |
| 500 m Buffer of Active Waste Disposal Site | Town of Renfrew Boundary                                              |                                                                      |

